

Dear Parents,

Here at Cameron Junior High, we strive for excellence in the classrooms. This entails fostering an environment to promote responsibility from our students. Therefore, beginning this semester, Spring 2011, late work will no longer be accepted. If an assignment is not turned in by the given due date, it will not be accepted, earning a zero. If a student is absent, please see the guidelines below:

- Any assignment made prior to a student's excused absence is due on the day of their return to class.
- For excused absences, students will have one day, for each day absent to complete the assignment. For example, if a student misses class on Tuesday, the assignment will be given on Wednesday, and the assignment will be due on Thursday.

As a reminder, if your student is absent or needs help with their assignments, we do offer Cameron Prep after school from 3:30-4:30, Monday thru Thursday. If you would like to sign your child up for this free program or receive more information please visit the CJH website or ask for a Cameron Prep form from your student's team.

If you have any questions regarding this change in policy, please contact your student's team. Please sign and return this form. If you would like a copy of this form, please either refer to the CJH website or have your student request one from their teacher to return home to you.

Sincerely,

Kyle Barrett – 7th grade Texas History

Brittany Louder – 7th grade Math

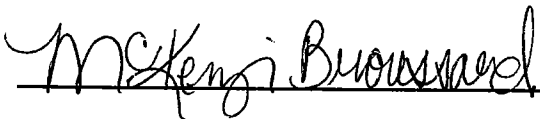

Jennifer Kostroun – 7th grade Reading

Kerry Lloyd – 7th grade Science

Michelle Evan – 7th grade Language Arts

McKenzi Broussard-7th Grade LA Student Teacher

I have read and understand the change in policy regarding late work, stated above.
