

Bio – Kenneth Driska, Jr.
Principal – Cameron C.H. Yoe High School
B.A – University of Mary Hardin – Baylor, 1994
M.Ed. – Tarleton State University, 2006
Supt. Cert. – University of Mary Hardin – Baylor, 2009

Mr. Kenneth Driska, Jr. earned his bachelor's degree from The University of Mary Hardin – Baylor in 1994. He continued his studies at Tarleton State University completing his Masters Degree in Educational Administration in 2006. He has also completed his superintendent certification at The University of Mary Hardin –Baylor in May 2009.

Mr. Driska has seventeen years of educational experience serving as a classroom teacher, coach, assistant principal, and principal all in the Rosebud-Lott and Cameron Independent School Districts. He was raised in the Westphalia community in west Falls County and graduated from Rosebud-Lott High School before attending The University of Mary Hardin – Baylor to continue his education where he was also a member of the men's basketball team.

Mr. Driska believes strongly in teaching self-discipline, self-organization, and self-motivation. He believes that students should represent the school and community well, and that they deserve a quality education. He encourages all students to take part in extracurricular activities so that they become well rounded and diversified. He believes in supporting teachers as they along with the students are the heart and soul of a campus.

Mr. Driska has been selected to Who's Who of America's Teachers, has received a Golden Apple Award from KWTX, has been selected as the District Coach of the Year while serving as head boys basketball coach, won the Class AA Division II State Football Championship in 2002, has been selected to coach in the Centex Basketball All-Star games, and is a member of the University of Mary Hardin – Baylor's Alumni Board of Directors.

Mr. Driska and his wife, Alushka, have been married for seven years. Alushka is a third grade self contained teacher at Scott Elementary in Temple ISD. The Driska's have two children who are their pride and joy and they love spending time with: a daughter Ainsley and a son Kelton.